We are excited to announce that we now offer *LearningExpress Library!

Need to take a certification exam for your job? Or, tests to help you get into college? The Justice Public Library is happy to help! Offered through a partnership with EBSCO, LearningExpress Library is a comprehensive testing database where you can download study guides and take the latest practice tests – either timed or at your own pace while you study. Your progress will be saved as you learn.

LEL has all the most important tests for students: ACT, SAT, GED, AP, CLEP, and more. And for employers and job seekers, LEL offers a huge variety of occupational exams for teachers, military, health, CDL, emergency services, air traffic controllers, plumbers, electricians, and many more. LEL also has resources and guidance to help you choose, change, and pursue your career, a center for Spanish speakers, and more. And the best news? It's accessible from your home, business, in the library, or on the go. All you need is a Wi-Fi capable device and Justice Library card. Just visit <http://justicepubliclibrary.com> and click the link to get started. Try it out!

And don't forget we still offer you many other great electronic resources: books, audiobooks, magazines, and databases (ALLDATA Repair Pro for autos, small engine repair, craft and hobby center, home improvement center, Transparent Language Online, Universal Class, genealogy, and more).

Decorative Foil Design – Saturday, 09/08/18 – 1:00 p.m. (Ages 13 & up)

Artist Terri Murphy returns to take you on a creative mixed media journey. Using paper, foil, and a variety of techniques and tools, Terri will teach you how create your design, and help you blend all the elements together to flow into a truly unique work of art. (90 minute workshop – Limit of 25 participants, so sign up early!)

Frankenstein: 200 Years of Horror and Hilarity – Thursday, 9/20/18 – 6:30 p.m.

In 1818 Mary Shelley, aged only 18, published Frankenstein, one of the most iconic horror novels of all time. Not just horror, Frankenstein is also a social commentary on being different. John Nygro discusses the novel, the pop culture phenomenon, and Hollywood's love of the tale. We'll focus on two very different film takes on the story – the Boris Karloff classic film from 1931 and, of course, Mel Brooks' 1974 Young Frankenstein.

Cemeteries in Chicago: Mystery and History – Thursday, 10/18/18 – 6:30 p.m.

Our favorite paranormal expert, Bob Trzeciak, returns with a look at some well-known and some not so well-known cemeteries around the Chicago area. You learn about some of the unique architecture, who's buried where, and, of course, the paranormal history of each. Be sure to stay for the palm readings after the show!

Slit-Ribbon Pinecone Turkey – Saturday, 11/03/18 – 1:00 p.m. (Ages 13 & up)

Join in the fun as Kathy Obirek shows you how to create your own unique pinecone turkey with a fluffy slit-ribbon tail. When you finish making your turkey, you'll create a festive Autumn setting for him, where he can shine. Please bring a hot-melt glue gun, glue sticks, and scissors. One lucky attendee will win a Special Door Prize: a Professional Ribbon Slitter! (Space is limited to 15 for this craft, so sign up early!)

Image Renewal: Imagine the Possibilities – Thursday, 11/15/18 – 6:30 p.m. (Ages 12 & up)

Does your image need a makeover? Just in time for the holidays, Jill Moss Stetson empowers you with tips on how to comprehensively enhance your appearance. In this inspiring presentation, she'll include style tips, wardrobe must-haves, skin care, and youthful aging techniques, all while sharing a little of the history of beauty.

Winter Folktales from Around the World – Thursday, 12/27/18 – 6:30 p.m. (All ages)

Hear frosty winter stories from Russia, Germany, Denmark, and more! Terrence Lynch will relate folktales that embody the cultures that passed them down, mainly by mouth, and helped to carry on the traditions of the common people from nations over the world. Do any of them sound familiar to you?

Ink & Watercolor Creatures – Saturday, 01/12/19 – 1:00 p.m. (Ages 13 & up)

Even if you think you have no talent, artist Terri Murphy will help you create a unique masterpiece that's all your own. Using inks and watercolors, you'll paint an animal of your choice that's half in black and white tones and half in color, creating a lively creature that looks like it will walk right off the page into reality. (90 minute workshop – Limit of 25 participants, so sign up early!)

Abe Lincoln: Stories, Wit, and Humor – Thursday, 1/24/19 – 6:30 p.m. (Ages 12 & up)

Mr. Lincoln (aka Kevin Wood) shares some of his favorite stories and jokes, and explains why he used these so often. You'll get to know Lincoln, the man, and a get dose of both his personal life and our nation's history.

Valentine's Day Wreath – Saturday, 02/02/19 – 1:00 p.m. (Ages 8 & up)

Shari Pontillo returns to help you create a beautiful wreath to decorate your house or door. Make a one of a kind heart-themed wreath from scrapbook papers and old book pages. We provide all the supplies. Fun for individual crafters and family groups. (90 minute workshop – Limit of 30 participants, so sign up early!)
